BRADD No. 028 August 12, 2011	Commonwealth E-mail Domain Change

As a part of the ongoing commitment to ensuring state government is open and accessible to Pennsylvania residents, @pa.gov will be added as the primary email domain for all commonwealth employees on Friday, July 29, 2011. For example: jafitzgera@state.pa.us will now be jafitzgera@pa.gov.

While this project will activate @pa.gov as the visible email address, the old email addresses ending in @state.pa.us will continue to function so that emails will never be interrupted. Your emails will still be received if they are accidentally or unknowingly sent to the @state.pa.us address.

The current stationery items will be exhausted before new stationery items are printed so that nothing will be thrown out. In the meantime, if you receive any commonwealth stationery items printed with the @state.pa.us email addresses, please be aware of this cost-saving practice.

We appreciate your cooperation as this small step is taken to increase the usability and consistency the commonwealth's online communications!

For e-Notification subscribers to this mailing list with @state.pa.us email addresses, your e-mail addresses will be updated to @pa.gov. There is no need to re-subscribe.
